UPSETS AT HAWTHORNE.

Hawthorne had a rousing big crowd Saturday and the visitors were treated to all kinds of sensations in the way of racing variations. There were long shots that won, horses that fell, Mr. Dwyer made his worst start of the year, and at the wind-up came a banner "form reversal."

All this kept the crowd keyed up to the high-pitch, and the returning trains were crowded to the limit with perhaps one of the best natured throngs that ever left a racetrack.

In the second race, where starter Dick Dwyer had all his trouble, and after it was run Dick, who is generally the best natured man around, was on the war path, and his big, good-natured face resembled the setting of the sun after an extremely hot day. It was not Dwyer's fault entirely that the horses were kept at the post for nearly an hour, but it was his mistake that after such a long delay Florizar, Juggler II. and Red Gidd were left at the post.

There were but nine starters in the race but the entire nine seemed to be bad actors, and to make matters worse six of them were ridden by practically green jockeys, Burns, Mitchell and Vitte being the only boys that seemed to have any control over their horses and they were looking for the best of it. The consequence was that starter Dwyer lost all patience after fooling around with the bunch for fifty five minutes and let them go with Tulla Fonso first, Montgomery second, and Malaise third. These were the three, too, that were ridden by experienced jockeys. Tulla Fonso went to the quarter about two lengths in front but down the backstretch Montgomery took the lead and held it to the stretch. Here Tulla Fonso challenged him and in a fierce drive beat him by a narrow margin.

After passing the wire Vitte hit Montgomery over the head with his whip several times and for doing so the judges fined him $25 after owner "Billy" Magrane had made a complaint.

The steepchase was a very eventful one. Mr. Corrigan's Colonel Bartlett, who won so impressively when last out, was a staunch favorite but there seemed to be no one that wanted to back him and he went back in the betting from 6 to 5 to 8 to 5. Evidently the ten pounds the gelding picked up from his last race was too much for him for he was last at the finish. Three Forks won the race after he had interfered with every other horse more or less, and Gypceiver was second. The latter horse finished directly in behind Three Forks and so close was he that in the very last stride he struck against Three Forks and fell. When he went down, however, he was under the wire and consequently had to be officially placed second.

Hop Scotch started the ball rolling by winning the first race easily after being backed from 15 to 1 down to 8 to 1. This gelding is royally bred, being by Hanover—Glen Belle, and has shown speed in all his races, but he has the reputation of being a quitter and it was for this reason that such a long price was laid against him. He got away in front and leading all the way won easily. Uncas was favorite for this race but he finished outside of the money. Nutt rode him and the judges suspended him pending an investigation. Uncas always has been a coward and it seemed that Nutt got as much out of him as any other jockey would be likely to.

King Bermuda knocked the form players silly when he won the last race very easily. The King started in the last race Friday and could not outrun a fat man, but in this race he had speed galore and ran a good race. For his sudden awakening J. R. Hand and his stable are suspended pending an investigation. To King Bermuda Jackanapes finished second and Tappan third.

A field of good class horses went to the post for the mile and seventy yards race, which was very brisk. Jolly Roger, with Tommy Burns up, closed a slight favorite, and after being beautifully ridden he won like a good colt from John Baker and Hard Knot. Macy, heavily backed, did not run up to expectations and finished fifth. Cherry Leaf, who perhaps did not like the track and was mildly ridden, finished fourth. This little horse looks fine and should win as soon as he hits a hard track. "Virginia" Bradley either has a sulker or a very eccentric horse in King's Highway. At any rate, the gelding runs some queer races. He was badly beaten for his last two starts but at 15 to 1 he won the third event Saturday, in a sensational way. Conley rode him and until the stretch was reached he was never better than eighth. Then he took a notion to run and tearing through the stretch like a mad horse won off by a couple of lengths.

LATONIA'S FINE ENTRY LIST.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: The list of entries for the five additional stakes to be run at the fall meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club has been announced by Secretary Hopper.

The entries this fall are far better than those of last season, and the prospects never looked brighter for a successful meeting at the Kenton county track. Nearly all the big western owners and a choice lot from the eastern States are represented in the list, and some of the fastest horses in training have been entered in the various events. The total number of entries to each stake is as follows:

Covington Autumn Stakes, 52; Latonia Prize, 23; Kenton Stakes, 44; the Tobacco Stakes, 54, and Cincinnati Hotel Handicap, 33.

Among the best known horsemen who have entries in these stakes are R. Tucker, C. H. Williams, W. H. Laudeman, S. S. Brown, E. S. Gardner, Jr., George J. Long, T. J. McHale, C. C. Maffitt, J. B. Respass, W. F. Schulte, George A. Singler, Rutledge & Stevens, Fairbairn Bros., W. H. May & Son, Middleton & Jungbluth, F. M. Arthur, W. H. McCorkle, Applegate & Durham, Baker & Gentry, J. T. Stewart, W. Huffman and T. G. Calvert.

The entries to the Covington Autumn stakes for two year-olds, Latonia Autumn prize for three-year-olds and Cincinnati Hotel Autumn Handicap for three-year-olds and upward are given here to afford a fair idea of the quality of the horses entered:

Time, 1:01 1/2. Winner—Ch. f, by St. Leonards—Handmaid. Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving. Dangerous Maid barely lasted long enough. Post Haste finished fast and with a stronger ride might have won. Federalist closed strongly. So did Fluke and Knightbannet. There was a lot of crowding at the stretch bend. The Bobby is good. Olinda was penned in on the rail and poorly handled by Wilson. Decimal swerved across the track at the start and interfered with some of the first division. Fluke got the worst of the crowding and at the weights was probably best. It was not a good start or a true run race. First Past and Laureate had no chance. Scratched—14406 Kipling, 112; 13853 Diffidence, 99; 14406 Jen. 99. Overweights—Federalist, 2 pounds. Dangerous Maid, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Post Haste, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Federalist, show evens. Fluke, place, 1 to 2; show, 1 to 4.

Sanders had too much weight up and quit in the last furlong. Lady Madge ran an extra good race. Lady Lindsay is good and ran her race. PEEP O'DAY was anchored with his high weight among this bunch of sprinters. Scratched—14425 Admiration, 112; 14297 St. Callatine, 107. Overweights—Lady Madge, 4 pounds. *Added starters. *Coupled in betting. Time, 1:10 1/2. Winner—Ch. c, by Albert—Hoodoo. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Mesmerist was best and ran in his usual commanding style. Weight does not bother him. Redpath ran a good race and is very promising. Golden ran honestly and gamely. Maribert weakened in the last furlong and probably does not fancy high weight when there is anything to race strongly with him. Erwin ran a good race. Lieutenant Gibson was outpaced. Colonel Roosevelt was outrun all the way. Scratched—(14388) High Order, 130; 14461 Gonfalon, 120; (13822) De Lacy, 118; 14388 Mac-Flecknoe, 109; 14464 King Bramble, 107; 14428 Lady Uncas, 104. Ben Holladay ran like himself and will probably be almost invincible in distance events from now on. The Bachelor ran well and is good but was outclassed. Bangle was too much used but had no chance with the winner. Previous ran well. Knight of the Garter was outclassed and is best in mud. Thomas Cat was outpaced all the way. Winner—Br. g. by Hanover—Glen Belle.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and with considerable reserve. The next five were under keen pressure. Hop Scotch got a flying start and had speed to loan. Considering his last race his price was far out of line. Ruskinn liked the track and did well. He met with interference on the far turn but not enough to make any difference in the result. Woodranger ran well. He was jammed into the rail and obliged to pull up passing the half mile ground. Uncas had no excuse, he simply weakened when the pinch came. Schanken ran a better race than the winner. She was the last to leave the post and made up much ground. Dolore also did well. Norma Taylor quit badly at the end.
Scratched—14292 Hanan, 101; 14294 Pitfall, 107; 14292 Elided, 110.

Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Tulla Blackburn.
Post 55 minutes. Start bad. Won in a hard drive of two. The next three were driving as hard. Tulla Fonso won principally through good jockeyship on the part of Burns. He saved the filly cleverly all through the long delay at the post and eventually got a running start. Then when the pinch came at the end he clearly outdistanced Vititoe. Montgomery was the best even after the long delay and had he not been interfered with he would have won off by himself. As it was Vititoe had to pull him up to avoid being thrown, and this defeated the old horse. Dominick was unable to do anything effective with Ida Ledford. He was so exhausted after the delay that he was lucky not to fall off.
Scratched—14449 J. H. C., 105.
Overweights—Malaise, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Meddler—Little Lady II.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; the next seven were under keen pressure and all in a heap. King's Highway came to life with a start and ran a fine race. He may be a sulker. Tencle was well ridden and appeared to be winning at the eighth post, but could not stand off King's Highway's rush. Miss Lynab and Afamada both showed fine speed. They incidentally raced each other to weariness. Afamada pulled up lame. Heroics, away in the rear division and interfered with often, ran a good race and finished strongly. Eva Wilton showed speed.
Scratched—14491 Harry Thorburn, 111; 14155 Loyalista, 109; 14449 Marzella, 109; 14296 Rolins, 107; 13673 La Princesse, 107.

Time, 3:12.

Winner—B. g. by Skokene—Trife.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce. Three Forks was roughly ridden by G. Wilson throughout. The horse was good and came with a rush on the flat. When he passed Gypsiever the pair collided. This made the latter swerve and he dropped directly in behind Three Forks. He was so close upon Three Forks that he jumped on the latter and just at the wire he fell. Marble ran a good race and so did Necedah. Colonel Bartlett did not show as much speed as he did in his last race and ran far below the notch. Previous to taking the tenth jump Colonel Bartlett stumbled. He, however, was beaten at that time.
Three Forks, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Gypsiever, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Marble, show, 2 to 5. Colonel Bartlett, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

14494 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third.
